

High Sheriff's award

We were surprised and delighted to receive a High Sheriff's award from the outgoing High Sheriff of Somerset, Thomas Sheppard. You can see the beautiful framed certificate on display behind the shop counter, which recognises our achievements as a community enterprise. When he presented the award Thomas said we provided a model for other community enterprises, demonstrating what can be achieved by working together.

